

Early Graduate Group Annual Conference 2024 Call for Abstracts

Abstract submission deadline:
Tuesday 06 August 2024, 5pm GMT

How can I submit an abstract?

If you wish to submit an abstract for consideration for poster or oral presentation, please email the below information to earlygraduategroup@psychologicalsociety.ie

Within in the subject of your email use the following format 'EGG Conference 2024 Abstract Submission [Oral or Poster] Presentation'

Information that must be provided in your abstract submission email:

- Name:
- Email address:
- Institution at which you are studying for, or have received, your primary degree in Psychology:
- Institution at which the research contained in the abstract was conducted:
- Submission for oral presentation or poster presentation?:
- Area(s) of psychology your abstract is most relevant to (e.g. clinical psychology, educational psychology, health psychology, etc.). Please provide a maximum of two areas:
- Title of submission:
- List of authors for the submission:
- Abstract (up to 200 words):

Further information for those submitting an abstract:

Guidelines for abstract submission:

- Titles should contain a maximum of 20 words
- Please ensure that the author list and institutional affiliation provided are correct prior to submitting

- Each abstract should provide a concise summary of the key elements of your research. Be sure to include the following information so that your abstract can be evaluated:
 - Aim(s)
 - Participants
 - Methods
 - Key results
 - Conclusions and implications of the research
- Abstracts should be 200 words (maximum).

Oral Presentation Guidelines

Time limit: 10 - 15 minutes.

Oral PowerPoint presentations are to be submitted to earlygraduategroup@psychologicalsociety.ie by 5pm Thursday 12 September. No presentations will be accepted after this deadline. Speakers will be notified of time warnings on the day of the conference, to ensure that all speakers receive an allocated and equal timeframe to present their work.

Poster Presentation Guidelines

Poster PDFs should also be submitted by 5pm Thursday 12 September.

In submitting an abstract, all prospective presenters agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. I confirm that the author list and institutional affiliation are complete and accurate.
2. I confirm that each author agrees with the content of this abstract and has given permission to be listed as an author.
3. I acknowledge that, should my abstract be accepted for presentation, I am required to complete conference registration via the separate link above
4. If selected for presentation, I consent to the above submitted abstract being published online or as an available download for reasons relating to conference organisation and advertising (e.g. in the conference programme digitally distributed to conference attendees, or on the official PSI website).

What is required of oral presenters at the conference?

- Conference delegates whose abstracts have been accepted for presentation (i.e. conference presenters) should prepare a ten minute presentation using PowerPoint slides.
- The PowerPoint presentation should be sent to the conference committee in advance of the conference
- On the day, the conference committee will simply open the presentation and the speaker will begin discussing their work.
- Following the conclusion of the presentation, there will be a five minute slot to allow the audience to ask the presenter any questions they may have about the work that has been presented.

What is required of poster presenters at the conference?

- Conference delegates whose abstracts have been accepted for poster presentation should send us their poster in pdf format no later than 5pm 12th September (with their contact details clearly included on the poster)
- On the day of the conference, the posters will be displayed on boards in tutorial rooms, and will be available for all conference attendees to view, during which the poster presenters will have an opportunity to answer any questions.

Note: Please do not spend time preparing a Powerpoint presentation, or a poster pdf of your work until you know that your abstract has been accepted for presentation.

Additional information:

If you require any accessibility supports for attending the online conference, please do not hesitate to get in touch by emailing earlygraduategroup@psychologicalsociety.ie